

March 1950

The Durham Kennel Club held a short business meeting after the March 10th dog show training class.

The president announced that plans were being rapidly completed for the show and that Mrs. Helms Crotchfield had agreed to put on her Weimerarner exhibition for the club on the night of the Dog Show.

It was announced that Rudolph Engle had been substituted for Margaret McGehan on the Judge's list.

Respectfully submitted
Julia F. Cuyler, Secretary