

May 1951

The Durham Kennel Club met at the Forest Hills Club House on Monday, May

The president, Miss Norman called the meeting to order and the program chairman, Mrs. H. E. Hoenig introduced Mrs. J.R. Huthhings and Wade K. Boone, who exhibited a champion Cocker and Beagle that had made their championship in the Durham show.

Horace Fowler then introduced Billy Branson who went through the obedience routine with his cocker spaniel.

After the exhibition three films were shown, Kennel Kings, Every Dog a Gentleman and the Dog Training Canine Corp.

The business meeting followed the program. The secretary read the minutes of the previous program. Miss Norman named the following nominating committee, Lela Jones, Chairman and Frances Hill, Ector Morris, Call Matthews and Mrs. Arthur Ferguson.

Miss Norman presented Mr. Candless suggestion to the club of having a door prize at each meeting and it met with everyone's approval.

The treasurer reported a balance of $1603.81 in the treasury. Mrs. Hill reported that an approximate profit of $253.31 was made on the show. Paul McGee was welcomed as a new member. The meeting adjourned at 10:30.

Resptfully submitted

Julia F. Cuyler, Secretary