

Dr. Douglas Hill presided at the meeting of the Durham Kennel Club held on January 11, 1954 at the Forest Hills Club House.

The minutes of the November meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer reported a balance of $557.77 in the checking account and $1507.50 in the Building and Loan account.

Dr. Hill announced that the Bench Show Committee had met with the Board of Directors of the Kennel Club on January sixth. At this meeting the mechanics of the coming all breed show and obedience trials were discussed and policies established.

Mr. Kepler announced that the spring Obedience Classes would begin on February 14, 1954 with Mr. Harold Graves of Burlington as instructor. This class is to be limited to 35 members and will meet on Sunday afternoons and Wednesday nights for eight one-hour periods.

Dr. Hill then introduced Mr. William Holt of Richmond, Virginia, who spoke on some of his experiences as an amateur dog handler. Mr. Holt, who is the breeder-owner of Ch. Rock Falls Colonel, emphasized the pleasure afforded the owner by the love and faithfulness of a dog.

After Mr. Holt's talk the meeting was declared adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Rife Atwood
