

Dr. Hill presided at the regular monthly meeting of the Durham Kennel Club which was held in the Agricultural Building on March 9, 1954.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer's report was read and approved.

Dr. Hill reported on developments about the coming Show. He distributed premium lists, posters and bumper stickers to advertise the Show.

Mrs. Hill announced that trophies in addition to those already pledged would be needed for the Show. She asked that the Club vote funds to pay for these trophies. Mr. Claudius Jones moved that the Club agree to this expenditure, Mr. Williams seconded, and the motion passed.

Mr. Kepler announced that there would be a mock Obedience Trial on Sunday, March 14, 1954. He invited all members of the Club to attend.

Dr. Hill announced that there would be training classes on show ring behavior held on the three Sundays prior to the Show.

Mrs. Cox reported that $556.50 worth of advertisements had been pledged to date. She announced that she expected additional ads and pledges for tickets to the Show to be given to children.

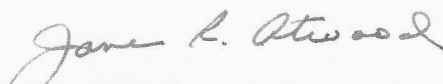

Miss Marie Smith announced that a poster contest had been held in the public schools to publicize the Dog Show. The prize winning posters will be exhibited in Ellis Stone's window. Bladwins will have puppies in their window. Radio and television programs have been arranged and there will be a feature article in the Durham Herald about the Show.

Mrs. Moore called the Club's attention to the series of dog articles now being run in the Sunday papers. The Secretary was instructed to write Mr. Steed Rollins expressing the Club's appreciation for these articles at the conclusion of the series.

A movie made by the Chicago Kennel Club demonstrating the fine points of dog judging was shown to the Club.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Mrs. Rife Atwood
