

MINUTES OF THE DURHAM KENNEL CLUB MEETING, October 15, 1979

Treasurer reported $20,195.08 in all accounts.

Our new Board member has been selected --- Connie Howard.

Dr. Smith reported on the fall show by saying he had lots of cooperation; the show site is coming along; the grooming area will be hard to get to; Club members are asked to work out of their cars or vans; two policemen from Burlington have been hired for traffic moving and parking; we will have a Durham policeman on duty Friday night at the site; entries are good -- total of 875; we do expect to make money on this show; eye clinic will be set up on your far right when facing the building.

Pat Lawrence, requesting for Faith Gewheiler, that breed stewards are still needed for the show.

Mary Bell still needs obedience stewards too.

Mary Holland reported that the Judges' Dinner will be held Friday night at the Ramada Inn. Cost per person is $7 and she needs the money now.

Mary Bell reported that our next obedience classes will begin in January.

It was announced that Pat Lawrence had been approved to be a provisional tracking judge.

Herman Fowler, reporting for Bill Tolbert, said the Tailwaggers enjoyed our facilities. The next meeting is scheduled for January - please plan to attend.

Mary Bell reported that dogs are spreading our trash and requested that the Club purchase or have members build trash can racks.

Becky, M.F., and Joyce need a new vacuum cleaner in order to properly clean the building. Discussion, but no decision.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
