

MINUTES OF THE DURHAM KENNEL CLUB MEETING, March 26, 1979

President Sharon Sawyer called the meeting to order.

Treasurer Mary Holland reported a total of $14,677.02 in the treasury. Spring Show profit amounted to $5,978.68; entries were slightly down to 1,835; AKC recording fee was $449.75. IRS has granted us a non-profit status at least until next audit.

Bill Tolbert, our AKC Delegate, reported that the proposal to limit the number of vice presidents had failed; the proposal to establish two new puppy classes for specialty clubs (10 12 to 18 months and (2) a novice class was approved.

Peter Kartye reported on the up-coming April 8th tracking trial; a few slots are still open; food is requested for the tracking luncheon.

Mary Holland, reporting for Marge White, Obedience Chairman, noted we have two full pre-novice classes; other classes are filling steadily.

List of nominees from Nominating Committee are:

President	Sharon Sawyer
Vice President	Peter Kartye
Secretary	Diane Divine
Treasurer	Mary Holland
Board of Directors
	Fred Shepherd
	Dr. Keith Grimson
	B. J. Thompson
	Vern Bell
	Gwen Hinson
