

DURHAM KENNEL CLUB MEETING - October 15, 1984

Program - Intimate Companions, pets may be good for our health.

Minutes were read by Secretary, Marie Hand. The minutes stood approved as read.

There was no Treasurer report.

Committee Reports

Judges Dinner

Marge White read the menu for the judges dinner to be held Friday night at 7:30. Reservations must be made by the end of the meeting.

Eye Clinic

Carolyn Bowers reports that a letter from the AKC notifying us that information about the 1985 Eye Clinic may be printed in the 1985 Premium List.

Dr. Peiffer will be doing the Eye Clinic. It was decided that the price for the Eye Clinic would be $6 without Surf form and $8 with.

Premium List

Moss Bow printed the wrong map in our Premium List for the fall show. We need a sign to state No Longer Show Site - DKC site with New Address to be placed at the DUKE Athletic Field. We are to hold up the 9 A.M. classes to give people a chance to get from the Duke field to our new show site and have them report immediately to the show ring.

Entries were down by 38 dogs in breed and 9 in Junior Handling over last year.

Trophies

Joyce Thomas needs two more volunteers to sit at the Trophy table. The first place trophies in Groups will be presented by the Club Officers. High in Trial and Junior Handler will be presented before the Best in Show.

Obedience

Edna Hodges announced that she needs one more obedience Steward for our Fall Show.

New Books

Pat Lawrence requested that any DKC books still outstanding please be returned to be catalogued. Any suggestions as to new books to purchase will be helpful.

Membership

Lu Ann Smith read the names of membership applicants and New Associated members were approved.

Spring Show

Connie Howard announced that our Spring Show will be March 22nd. Our judging panel has been approved except for one judge because of an error.

Trophy donations must be signed up for by the first of December.

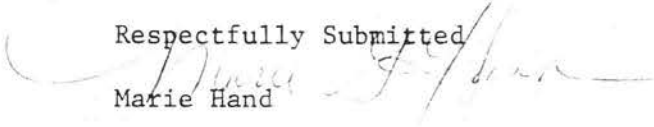

Match

Raleigh Dog Fanciers Match will be held November 11 and fliers will be in the mail shortly.

There will be a Eye Clinic, October 22 at the Club House sponsored by the Labrador Retriever Club between 8-2. No appointment necessary. The Charge will be $8. Dr. Mark Nasisse will be the vet.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted

Marie Hand