

THE DURHAM KENNEL CLUB MEETING 5-19-86

The meeting was called to order by President, Connie Howard.

Secretary's report was approved as read.

Treasurer, Bill Nelson gave the following report. Checking $9,709.92, Savings $525.81 and Capital Preservation $26,538.40.

The obedience Clinic held at our Club house was very successful.

Membership:

Associate members were read and voted on.

Brenda Adams reports that the match fliers will be mail next week.

Carolyn Vaughn reports that we are receiving lots of breeder referral calls.

Our Club picnic will be June 15th at the Club house. $1.00 per plate.

Marica Kmetz will be acting as Advertising Chairman for the fall show.

Land:

The land that the Board checked into at $2000.00 per acre has been sold and is not available to us. We have been in contact with the Terry's on the land adjoining the Club house but have only gone in circles. Needed is 3 acres for the show plus parking. 750 cars per 1000 dogs, about 20 acres in all.

The membership voted Dr. & Mrs <sup>Grisson</sup> Grisson, Mike and B. J. Thompson and Mrs. Clarence (Jean) Smith as Honary Members of the Durham Kennel Club.

Trophies are needed for our fall Show. Deadline to pledge trophies is in June.

Sue Geesler has called AKC on the Delegate position and reports that if a new delegate is voted in the old delegate would continue to attend meetings until the new delegate was approved.

Marge White to check on Fire Extinguishors. The Club building should have two . Building measures 50 x 125 ft.

The exhaust fan over the stove needs an Electrician to check it. Our coffee pot needs replacing.

We also need the plans of the plumbing to see were the kitchen drain goes out.

Many brags were given by the membership.

1986-87 Elections:

The following were voted in by the membership to serve for the term 1986-87.
