President's Report: Richard reported that the one air conditioning unit that was not functioning has been repaired. Richard also thanked George and Emilie Beglane for clearing the driveway of the fallen trees.

Richard reminded member-candidates of their responsibility in completing their service requirements and suggested that the fall show is a good source for jobs to be done.

Fall show: This year our club will handle the refreshment stand and Jim and Cindy Alexander will be in charge of this.

Judy Ortiz will serve as our obedience chairperson.

Marie Inman will serve as our advertising chairperson for the fall show catalog.

Renae Crosby will serve as our publicity chairperson.

Kasey Smith will serve as our hospitality chairperson on the day of the show.

Stella Maunsell announced that the DKC will host an obedience stewarding clinic on Sunday, October 13th from 3:00 - 5:30 p.m. at the DKC building. Stella and Rob Bozeman are putting this program together.

Carol Quinlan reported that obedience classes are full and underway and Marie Inman reported that show handling classes will begin on September 19th.

Betsy Pethick reported that a micro-chip clinic will be held during the fall show using the Home Again chip.

Pat Lawrence, Chairperson of the tracking committee asked for help from the members in planning tracking activities. Marie Inman will serve as secretary for the fall tracking test and Cathy Fogel will chair the after-test luncheon.

It was reported that the paper work for Lisa Connelly to be voted on as our AKC Delegate is being processed.

Lisa reported for the awards committee that awards forms are again posted in the DKC building entry area and more information will be included in the October newsletter.

Cathy Fogel, Librarian, asked that overdue books be returned and asked that the membership submit ideas for book or video purchases.

George Beglane announced that a club work crew will be organized some time this fall to cut back the brush along the driveway.

M. F. Davis announced that plans are progressing well for the December obedience trial and passed a sign up sheet for trophy pledges.

Sharon Pitz told the membership that we still have t-shirts and mugs for sale.

Richard Perschel asked for a volunteer to chair the January yard sale. No one volunteered.

AKC update from Terri Rein: The AKC needs people to answer phone calls either full time or part time and people well versed in the performance activities are especially needed. Mark Threlfall is the person to contact at AKC.

Following several brags the meeting was adjourned at 9:15 p.m.
