Committee Reports:

Awards Program: Joanna Burley reminded that the annual awards dinner will be held on February 26th at the Regal Hotel in Durham. Jack Sappenfiled, for the awards committee, reported that there will be a cash bar from 6:30 until 7:30 with dinner being served at 7:15. The cost will be $25.00 per person and our group will be in the Alumni Room.

Membership: Stella Maunsell circulated ballots for the following to be voted into regular membership status. Tracy Fletcher, Masha Helpern and Lisa Williams.

Stella, as Corres. Sec., read a thank you note from Betty Perschel and also let the membership know that a thank you from obedience judge, John Mett, had been received.

Lisa Connelly, AKC Delegate, reported that she had attended the December 8th delegate meeting in New York. A complete report will be included in the next newsletter.

Old Business: Marge White reported that the club project of collecting money to outfit the Durham K-9 dogs with bullet proof vests is progressing. We are collecting funds at a regular rate and will go full-steam ahead as soon as we get the final approval from the police officials.

The membership was reminded of the yard sale that will be held on January 21st. Items to be contributed can be brought to the building on Friday night from 3:00 until 8:00 p.m. Items for the bake sale should be brought to the building on Saturday. Volunteers are still needed to help set up, be in attendance on Saturday and also to help take down at the close of the sale.

Terri Toohil reported for Marie Inman that ads for the spring show catalog must be submitted very quickly. $35.00 will buy a full page with picture, $30 a full page w/o picture, one-half page w/o picture is $25.00 and the booster page is $5.00

Monies collected from the impressive brags were added to the money being collected for the K-9 vests.

There being no further business, a motion for adjournment was entertained and seconded and the meeting ended at 9:20 p.m.

Submitted with the greatest of respect for our club and it's membership.

Masrjorie J. White, Recording Secretary.
